

Yvonne Tiernan Bullet Point Biography

- Worked at the infamous Factory Studios in Ringsend during its time as a rehearsal & recording home to U2, The Hothouse Flowers, Bob Dylan, David Bowie and many others. She then joined Warner Music Ireland where she worked in admin & A&R.
- Her first appearance on TV was as presenter of the first series of RTÉ travel Show 'No Frontiers'.
- Yvonne then opened her own office at The Factory studios managing and promoting numerous acts including Altan, Paul Brady and The Screaming Orphans among others. During this time she also worked as a Talent Scout for BMG Records Label and as the Music Editor at VIP Magazine.
- Yvonne worked for over a decade with The Chieftains, running their Irish Management office while also touring the US, Canada, Japan, & Europe with them as lead vocalist performing numerous times in Carnegie Hall, The Royal Albert Hall & The Boston Pops.
- Yvonne trained in Opera with Dr. Veronica Dunne and then at The Royal Irish Academy Of Music. She currently sings with new contemporary folk band 'The Black Berries' based in Galway but one of her other favourite past singing roles was as Frida in the highly successful Irish Tribute Band 'Abbaesque' which headlined the then Point Depot on New Years Eve.
- For over 10 years, Yvonne Managed her Husband, stand-up Comedian Tommy Tiernan, and was executive producer of his DVDs 'Cracked', 'Loose', 'Jokerman', 'Okay Baby', 'Something Mental', 'Bovinity', 'Crooked Man' and 'Stray Sod'. She still works as a Director of Mabinóg Ltd. the company which produces Tommy's DVDs.
- Already a fully-qualified Life Coach, Yvonne began studying for a degree in Psychology with The Open University in 2015.
- In October RTÉ will launch Yvonne's new Interview Series exclusively for the RTÉ Player called 'The Couch'. Yvonne has also launched her own on-line magazine www.thecouch.ie
- Born in Dublin Yvonne now lives in Galway with her Husband Tommy and their three children.

For further information please contact yvonne@thecouch.ie

<http://www.facebook.com/TheCouchYvonneTiernan>

<http://twitter.com/TheCouchYvonne>

<http://www.TheCouch.ie>

Address: The Loft, Century Buildings, 7-9 Upper Abbeygate Street, Galway. H91 DT8X